

MADE IN U.S.A.

GOOD-BYE GIRLS

GOOD-BYE

BY Earl Berlin

ART DEPT

BELL
PUBLISHING CO.
PUBLISHERS OF MIGHTY SELLERS
ST. LOUIS, U.S.A.

Good-bye Girls, Good-bye

By EARL BERLIN
and JESS HOLLWEG

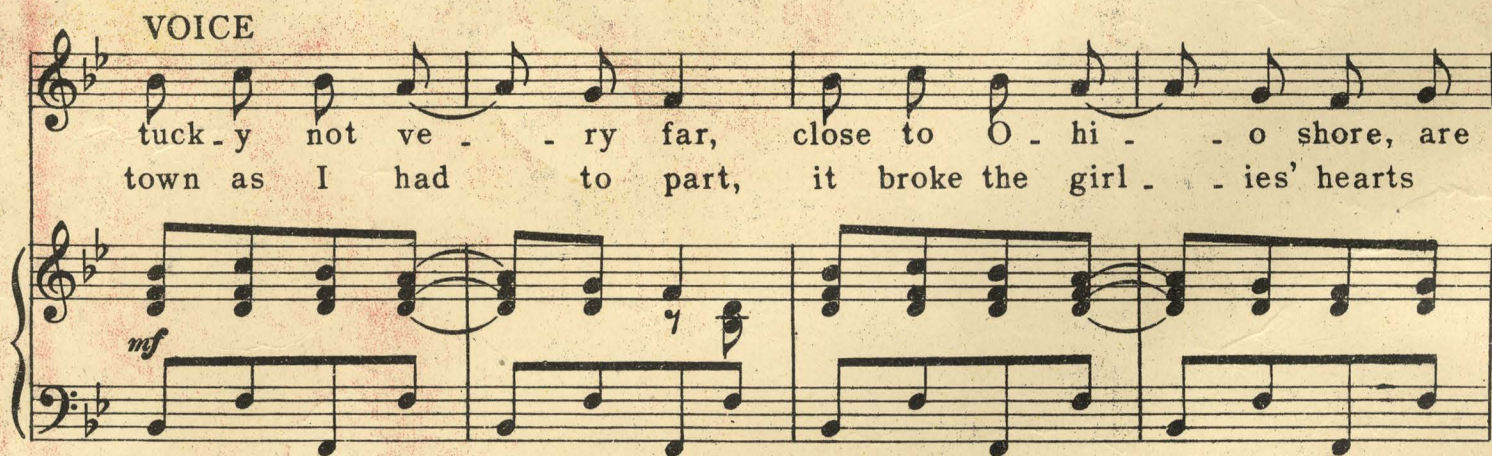

Allto Modto

VAMP

VOICE

and al-ways dined them, of lone-li-ness I nev-er have con-fessed, en-joy the gay life, in fact to change the night-time in-to day,

But a let-ter from home re-ceived, in-formed me I had
But I whis-pered in each one's ear "this life to me seems to leave, the on-ly town of joy and hap-pi-ness.

so queer, give me those hap-py days, down on the farm.

So a group of girls ver-y gay ac-comp'ned me on Drink-ing milk for beer out of steins, and pick-ing grapes off

— my way to the train where I sang this re frain.
 — the vines, back to child hood days a way from harm."

CHORUS

Good-bye girls I'm goin' to leave you, I'm go - ing

p-ff far far a - way. ——— Though I know my ab - sence will grieve you, good times will van-ish now both night and day. ———

I'm go - ing back to the wild wood, hap - py days that I spent dur - ing child - hood. Au - re - voir, don't you sigh, dry your tears, don't you cry. Good - bye girls, good - bye girls, good - bye. bye.

Maybe you'll come back to me then

MADE IN U.S.A.

PROFESSIONAL COPY.
Maybe You'll Come Back To Me Then
By EARL BIRLIN
and JESS MARLING

BELL
PUBLISHING CO.
PUBLISHERS OF MIGHTY SELLERS
ST. LOUIS, U.S.A.